Program Description

Degree Awarded: MS Agribusiness

The Morrison School of Agribusiness at the Polytechnic campus offers the MS in agribusiness. This degree program is designed to prepare students from a variety of backgrounds with a set of critical and analytical business skills, while recognizing the unique demands of the agribusiness and resource management sectors. Graduates are well prepared for successful administrative or managerial careers with either government or private-sector organizations in either field.

Students are able to select either a research-oriented program, which leads to the completion of a supervised thesis, or a program consisting of coursework only (nonthesis option). The nonthesis option allows students to develop an area of specialization and apply these skills to a real-world environmental and resource management problem through an integrative capstone course experience. Both the thesis and nonthesis options require the completion of a common set of core courses.
