Conflict Resolution, BA

Handling conflict effectively is an essential skill in today's world. Drawing from disciplines such as political science, communication and ethics, students learn how to address conflict and transform it into productive dialogue. Ideal for any career field, this program is appropriate for students interested in business, education, government or law.

Program Description

The BA program in conflict resolution introduces students to theories and practices that will enable them to understand, address and transform conflict, while dealing with challenges both at the micro and the macro levels in such contexts as professional, cross-cultural, individual and collective interactions. Having engaged with subject areas in political science, communication, ethics, peace studies, history and others, graduates of the program will be ready to pursue further education or careers in business, mediation, advocacy, education, government and law.
