English (Secondary Education), BA
ASENGSEBA

The English program at ASU's West campus offers a concentration in secondary education. Through rigorous examination of literature, composition and linguistics, students enhance their writing and communication skills in preparation to pass these skills on to the next generation of Arizona learners, where secondary educators are in high demand.

Program Description

This program provides rigorous content in literature, composition, linguistics and secondary teaching, extensively preparing students to meet the needs of all student populations, including attention to levels of student academic performance and cultural and linguistic diversity.

The demand for teachers in Arizona is high. Students complete their teaching internship in school districts in the greater Phoenix area or for one of the 22 Native American nations in Arizona.

This major is eligible for the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program at the following location: West campus. Students from Western states who select this major and campus may be eligible for reduced nonresident tuition at a rate of 150 percent of Arizona resident tuition plus all applicable fees.
