History, Minor

ASHISMIN

Description

The minor program in history educates students in the methods and the use of basic tools of the historical discipline. Students are exposed to a broad span of history, both temporally and geographically, ranging from the ancient world through the modern period and extending from Europe to Latin America and the United States.

The program is offered by the School of Humanities, Arts and Cultural Studies.

The minor in history consists of 18 credit hours (a minimum of 12 credit hours must be upper-division). A minimum of six upper-division credit hours must be completed through HST courses offered by the School of Humanities, Arts, and Cultural Studies. Students wishing to pursue the minor should meet with an academic advisor to construct a set of courses that reflect a particular area of specialty and interest. All courses used to satisfy requirements for the minor must be passed with a grade of "C" (2.00) or better.

History Survey Requirements -- 6 credit hours

Depending on a student's undergraduate program of study, prerequisite courses may be needed in order to complete the requirements of this minor.

Enrollment Requirements

GPA Requirement: None

Incompatible Majors: BA in history

Other Enrollment Requirements: None

Current ASU undergraduate students may pursue a minor and have it recognized on their ASU transcript at graduation. Students interested in pursuing a minor should consult their academic advisor to declare the minor and to ensure that an appropriate set of courses is taken. Minor requirements appear on the degree audit once the minor is added. Certain major and minor combinations may be deemed inappropriate by the college or department of either the major program or the minor. Courses taken for the minor may not count toward both the major and the minor. Students should contact their academic advisor for more information.
