History (Secondary Education), BA

With secondary educators in high demand, the history program at ASU's West campus offers a concentration in secondary education. With a flexible curriculum based on a traditional history degree, you will enhance your writing, research and communication skills in preparation to pass these skills on to the next generation of Arizona learners.

Program Description

For students considering a career in education, the flexible BA program in history with a concentration in secondary education fully prepares students for teaching and certification while providing all the disciplinary knowledge of a traditional history degree. Students understand history in all its breadth and depth while developing strong critical reading, writing and research skills as well as skills in oral presentation.
