Social and Cultural Analysis (Women and Gender Studies), BA

ASSCAWSBA

Take a deep-dive into the historical, political and cultural underpinnings of the fabric that binds communities today. You'll explore the historic and current context of ongoing inequities in opportunities for women as well as the invaluable, unique contributions by women.

Program Description

The BA program in social and cultural analysis with a concentration in women and gender studies offers students a transdisciplinary curriculum that focuses on the diverse experiences of women in both national and international contexts. The program also examines the meaning of gender as a socially constructed category that shapes personal identities, beliefs, opportunities and behaviors.

The wide range of classes explores the intersections of gender, race, class and sexuality; the institutional structures that have an impact on women's and men's lives; and the broad range of feminist theories that seek to explain and influence women's status in society. Areas of emphasis include gender and sexuality, critical race feminisms, gender and the borderlands, transnational feminisms, social activism and social movements, histories of feminism and critical embodiment studies.
