ASWSTBA

ASU is no longer accepting new students to this program. Students interested in this program should apply to the BA in Social and Cultural Analysis (Women and Gender Studies) or BS in Women and Gender Studies.

Program Description

This is an interdisciplinary BA program emphasizing intersectional approaches to the study of gender, race, class, ethnicity and sexuality in national and transnational contexts.

Consistent with the university's design imperatives of social embeddedness and use-inspired research, the program's course offerings, research initiatives and cocurricular programs further the understanding of women and gender and promote social justice.

This major is eligible for the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program at the following location: West campus. Students from Western states who select this major and campus may be eligible for reduced nonresident tuition at a rate of 150 percent of Arizona resident tuition plus all applicable fees. See more information and eligibility requirements on the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience

With over 250 programs in more than 65 countries (ranging from one week to one year), study abroad is possible for all ASU students wishing to gain global skills and knowledge in preparation for a 21st century career. Students earn ASU credit for completed courses, while staying on track for graduation, and may apply financial aid and scholarships toward program costs. https://mystudyabroad.asu.edu/.

Career Opportunities

The women and gender studies program builds a solid educational foundation, providing knowledge and helping students develop the critical-thinking skills needed to deal with changing gender roles in society. The program also prepares students for opportunities in many settings:

- business and professional schools
- education and training
- graduate study in the humanities and social sciences
- health care services
- human resources development
- public and business administration
- social services
Career examples include but are not limited to those shown in the following list. Advanced degrees or certifications may be required for academic or clinical positions.
