International Business, Certificate

BAIBSCERT

Description

Students can expand their horizons and opportunities by learning about the global economy. The certificate program is designed to:

- develop competence in a foreign language
- develop sensitivity to foreign cultures
- provide an awareness of global social processes
- provide an understanding of international business environments, principles and operations

The W. P. Carey School of Business has partnerships with universities all over the world, so students can experience new cultures, visit new places and build intercultural and language skills. International internships also are offered in conjunction with the ASU Study Abroad Office.

B. Nonbusiness Global Awareness Course Work -- 9 credit hours

Nonbusiness Global Awareness Course Work (9)

Notes: These hours may be satisfied by any combination of the following:

1. Students can choose any of the university-designated nonbusiness global awareness ("G") courses.
2. One course must be upper-division to meet the 12 upper-division hours requirement.
3. Recommended: It is recommended to choose courses related to the area of study abroad experience.
Additional courses may be approved by the international program coordinator.
4. Nonbusiness global awareness hours may also be satisfied by: * An ASU or W. P. Carey School of Business education abroad program earning six credit hours or more fulfills six of the credit hours of nonbusiness global requirements. * An ASU or W. P. Carey School of Business education abroad program earning three credit hours fulfills three of the credit hours of nonbusiness global requirements.

C. Foreign Language Proficiency

Completion of one year (two semesters) of the same foreign language at the college level.
Completion of one semester of the equivalent of 101- and 102-level course work.
Completion of two years of the same foreign language in high school with a minimum grade of "C" (2.00 on a 4.00 scale).
Documentation of a proficiency test confirming preparedness to start at least the second year of a foreign language (201 level or above).
A student whose native language is not English may have this requirement waived.

D. International Study Experience

The certificate program requires students to participate in an ASU Study Abroad Office sponsored program. Students cannot use independent non-sponsored programs to fulfill this requirement. Sponsored programs can be found on the Study Abroad Office website at https://mystudyabroad.asu.edu/.

Depending on a student's undergraduate program of study, prerequisite courses may be needed in order to complete the requirements of this certificate.

Enrollment Requirements

The certificate application is accessed and submitted through Advising SOS: https://wpcarey.asu.edu/SOS. Students should contact the department for more information.

No more than 6 credit hours may be shared between certificate and other degree programs, minors, and/or other certificates.

For disclosure information on the U.S. Department of Education Gainful Employment Program, students should see https://catalog.asu.edu/files/disclosures/BAIBSCERT/Gedt.html.

A student pursuing an undergraduate certificate must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student at ASU. Undergraduate certificates are not awarded prior to the award of an undergraduate degree. A student already holding an undergraduate degree may pursue an undergraduate certificate as a nondegree-seeking graduate student.
