Through studying abroad, students gain skills employers seek, including communication and interpersonal skills and real-life perspectives on business applications worldwide. Students can choose from many options like faculty-directed programs in the summer or full semesters in locations throughout the world including Italy, Australia and South Korea.

The W. P. Carey School of Business recommends the following study abroad programs for students majoring in marketing with a concentration in professional sales: http://links.asu.edu/SAO.marketing.

Career Opportunities
The number of employers interested in hiring professionals for sales roles far exceeds the number of students who are pursuing career opportunities in sales.
