Program Description

Degree Awarded: MS Supply Chain Management and Engineering

The MS in supply chain management and engineering is a two-year, 30 credit hour program for working professionals in supply chain management, industrial engineering or a related field that consists of 15 credit hours of courses from the Department of Supply Chain Management in the W. P. Carey School of Business and 15 credit hours from the industrial engineering program in the School of Computing, Informatics and Decision Systems Engineering in the Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering.

Most students will have an undergraduate degree in a technical field, such as business, engineering or science. The objective is twofold: to provide students with knowledge of the fundamental foundations across the full spectrum of supply chain management functions and to provide them with the ability to use state-of-the-art engineering tools to analyze, control and optimize modern supply chains.
