Sports Business, Certificate
BASPBCERT

Description

The certificate in sports business is an innovative curriculum designed for BS students in the W. P. Carey School of Business who are interested in deepening their knowledge in the sports business domain. Particular attention is given to providing a foundation in marketing and sales as it is applied to the sports business discipline. The certificate prepares students for success by complementing coursework from a degree program with specialized business knowledge in the sports business area of interest.
