Transfer Options

ASU is committed to helping students thrive by offering tools that allow personalization of the transfer path to ASU. Students may use MyPath2ASU™ to outline a list of recommended courses to take prior to transfer.

ASU has transfer partnerships in Arizona and across the country to create a simplified transfer experience for students. These pathway programs include exclusive benefits, tools and resources, and help students save time and money in their college journey. Students may learn more about these programs by visiting the admission site: https://admission.asu.edu/transfer/pathway-programs.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
As the world grows more connected, an understanding of other cultures and places is imperative. Study abroad helps students to understand how different cultures and the media actors that originate from those cultures interact and influence. Real-world experience in programs that observe and analyze international media, news culture and journalism prepare students for 21st century careers where they will need to articulate and utilize knowledge of multicultural communication styles. https://goglobal.asu.edu/

Career Opportunities

A sophisticated understanding of mass communication is a critical asset for careers in business, government, community and the nonprofit sectors. Graduates have varied career opportunities, such as with:

- education institutions
- government entities
- political parties
- professional organizations
- publishing companies
- writing firms

Graduates also are prepared to pursue graduate studies in fields such as law, medicine, the arts, education and journalism.

Career examples include but are not limited to those shown in the following list. Advanced degrees or certifications may be required for academic or clinical positions.
