Program Description

Degree Awarded: MA Art (Art History)

The MA in art with a concentration in art history is a comprehensive degree program designed to train students to engage with visuality in multiple ways. It offers a diverse curriculum intended to foster critical understanding of aesthetics, production, patronage and consumption of art. Eleven internationally recognized faculty members offer classes across many cultures, time periods and geographies, using multiple approaches and methodologies. The program stresses intersections between disciplines, borders, margins, points of mediation and technological developments throughout history. The graduate curriculum offers focused study in the areas of images and digital technologies, art in social and political contexts, and histories and theories of visual culture.

At a Glance

- College/School: Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts
- Location: Tempe campus

Degree Requirements

30 credit hours, a thesis and a foreign language exam

Required Core (3 credit hours)
ARS 501 Methodologies and Art History (3)

Focus Area Coursework (12 credit hours)
Seminars (12)

Electives (6 credit hours)
Research (3 credit hours)
ARS 592 Research (3)

Culminating Experience (6 credit hours)
ARS 599 Thesis (6)

Additional Curriculum Information

This program must include a minimum of 24 hours in art history, with at least 12 of these earned in 500-level seminars.

Four courses in the below areas are required with two of these courses outside of the geographical area of specialization:

Ancient Africa
Asia
Baroque
Contemporary (inc. Photo)
Latin America
Medieval Modern
Native American Indian
Oceania
Pre-Columbian
Renaissance

For elective coursework, students may choose to take either 500-level courses in art history or related areas such as anthropology, history, museum studies, religion, etc. or up to six hours of the following omnibus courses:

ARS 590 Reading and Conference
ARS 592 Research
ARS 584 Internship

Students must have reading knowledge of one research language in addition to English. The selected language needs to be appropriate for the area of research concentration and must be approved by the faculty mentor. This requirement can be met by taking a language for reading knowledge course in the School of International Letters and Cultures (SILC) with a grade of B or better, or by passing the Graduate Foreign Language Examination offered by SILC which requires a fee.
Admission Requirements

Applicants must fulfill the requirements of both the Graduate College and the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts.

Applicants are eligible to apply to the program if they have earned a bachelor's or master's degree from a regionally accredited institution. In addition, applicants must have an undergraduate major or minor in art history or at least four upper-division art history courses in which a GPA of 3.00 or higher was maintained.

Applicants must have a minimum of a 3.00 cumulative GPA (scale is 4.00 = "A") in the last 60 hours of a student's first bachelor's degree program, or applicants must have a minimum of a 3.00 cumulative GPA (scale is 4.00 = "A") in an applicable master's degree program.

All applicants must submit:

1. graduate admission application and application fee
2. official transcripts
3. GRE scores
4. three letters of recommendation.
5. one formal research paper for review
6. one-page statement of intent indicating their objectives for graduate study
7. proof of English proficiency

Additional Application Information

An applicant whose native language is not English (regardless of their current residency) must provide proof of English proficiency.

Students should see the program website for application deadlines and admission terms.

Contact Information

School of Art | ART 102
soagrad@asu.edu | 480-965-8521