Theatre (Interdisciplinary Digital Media), MFA

If you're interested in a truly transdisciplinary education designed to give you the tools you need to work in a wide variety of contexts at the intersection of technology and experience, this program will help you achieve your artistic, professional and educational goals.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: MFA Theatre (Interdisciplinary Digital Media)
A concentration of the MFA in theatre, the interdisciplinary digital media program focuses on the growing importance of digital media as a way of making and thinking about art and experience.

Courses and research activities prepare students to become sophisticated developers, makers, evaluators and entrepreneurs of digital media while at the same time completing a sequence of core courses in theatre.

This graduate program is offered through the School of Music, Dance and Theatre in collaboration with the School of Arts, Media and Engineering.

At a Glance

- College/School: Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts
- Location: Tempe campus

Degree Requirements

60 credit hours including the required applied project course (THP 693)
Core School of Arts, Media and Engineering courses, to be selected in consultation with each student’s School of Arts, Media and Engineering graduate advisor (minimum of 18 credit hours)

Research and applied project (15 credit hours)

Core courses in theatre theory, history and practice (27 credit hours)

The overall course of study is developed with the advisor to ensure a breadth of transdisciplinary knowledge.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must fulfill the requirements of both the Graduate College and the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts.

Applicants are eligible to apply to the program if they have earned a bachelor's or master's degree in a related field from a regionally accredited institution.

Applicants must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (scale is 4.00 = "A") in the last 60 hours of their first bachelor's degree program, or applicants must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (scale is 4.00 = "A") in an applicable master's degree program.

All applicants must submit:

1. graduate admission application and application fee.
2. official transcripts
3. current resume
4. statement of purpose
5. portfolio that supports the statement of purpose
6. academic writing sample from a previous degree, independent work or publication
7. three letters of recommendation from professionals familiar with the applicant's work
8. proof of English proficiency

Additional Application Information

An applicant whose native language is not English must provide proof of English proficiency regardless of current residency.

The statement of purpose should describe the applicant's background in theatre and interest in and suitability for work in the intersection of theatre and digital media.

Applicants should thoroughly review application deadlines and requirements on this website:  https://musicdancetheatre.asu.edu/admissions/theatre/graduate-steps-to-apply
Applicants should see the program website for application deadlines but should note that for financial aid purposes, the School of Arts, Media and Engineering deadline is February 1.

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the Master of Fine Arts in theatre with a concentration in interdisciplinary digital media are prepared to work in a variety of settings and industries including higher education, professional theatre companies and community arts organizations.

Career examples include:

- digital media artist
- digital media arts educator
- digital media composer
- interactive media designer
- interactive performance artist

Contact Information

School of Music, Dance and Theatre | GHALL 240
mdatadmissions@asu.edu | 480-965-4206