Art (Digital Photography), BFA

Develop your digital photography skills at ASU in the first fully online studio degree program in the nation.

Program Description

The BFA program in art with a concentration in digital photography at ASU is the first fully online studio practice-based degree program from a comprehensive research university or fine art college in the United States.

Working with a faculty of professional artists, students have the opportunity to master technical, aesthetic and conceptual aspects of digital photography. Not bound by traditional schedules or the limitations of location, this program's flexibility creates a unique community of faculty and students and provides studio-practice art education to a wide and diverse population.

Students should visit ASU Online to learn more.

Transfer Options

ASU is committed to helping students thrive by offering tools that allow personalization of the transfer path to ASU. Students may use MyPath2ASU™ to outline a list of recommended courses to take prior to transfer.

ASU has transfer partnerships in Arizona and across the country to create a simplified transfer experience for students. These pathway programs include exclusive benefits, tools and resources, and help students save time and money in their college journey. Students may learn more about these programs by visiting the admission site: https://admission.asu.edu/transfer/pathway-programs.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
Study abroad programs in countries such as France, Japan and South Africa refine students' own creative vision and comprehensive knowledge of the theory, practice and history of photography. The international practice of photography allows students to expand their portfolio and pursue onsite locations similar to those found only in the professional field. https://goglobal.asu.edu/
