Enact social change by creating compelling arguments, engaging in collaborative problem-solving and exploring how communication creates knowledge and action. This program is for those who want to be on the cutting edge of technology, language and design.

Program Description

The BA in English with a concentration in writing, rhetorics and literacies teaches students strategies for inquiry. Students explore the ways in which communication has, does and will create knowledge and action. Students study how communication is constructed, circulated, reacted to and repurposed through time and place. Through differing tools of inquiry, students investigate the history, theories and methods of inquiry as well as pragmatic and social actions of rhetoric, writing and literacies.

Transfer Options

ASU is committed to helping students thrive by offering tools that allow personalization of the transfer path to ASU. Students may use MyPath2ASU™ to outline a list of recommended courses to take prior to transfer.

ASU has transfer partnerships in Arizona and across the country to create a simplified transfer experience for students. These pathway programs include exclusive benefits, tools and resources, and help students save time and money in their college journey. Students may learn more about these programs by visiting the admission site: https://admission.asu.edu/transfer/pathway-programs.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
Studying abroad expands students' perspectives by exposing them to new and unique cultures, communities and people. Students can explore the English language at a deeper level through an extended lens of literature, dialects and rhetoric in one of over 250 study abroad programs. Students enhance their resumes and educational experience by gaining heightened cultural competency, communication and critical thinking skills through study abroad. https://mystudyabroad.asu.edu/
Career Opportunities

Career opportunities are vast for this concentration: in business, private companies, government, nonprofit organizations and anywhere where critical inquiry, innovative thinking, communication, decision-making, future studies and collaboration are valued and needed. This program also prepares students for further education in teaching, law and other professional programs.

Career examples include but are not limited to those shown in the following list. Advanced degrees or certifications may be required for academic or clinical positions.
