French, BA

Learn one of the most widely spoken and important languages in the world. Study abroad in fascinating places and encounter many different cultures. Your experiences as a French major prepare you for a variety of creative and international professions.

Program Description

The BA program in French offers the opportunity to study the language, literature and culture of France and francophone countries. Students gain competence in reading, writing, and oral and aural skills in the French language and take a number of related courses on topics such as:

- art
- cinema
- colonization
- government and political science
- history and civilization
- international business
- linguistics
- literature and theater
- popular culture
- religion

Students are encouraged to join the French Club to help them gain proficiency in the language. In addition, the School of International Letters and Cultures offers faculty-directed summer study abroad programs in France and Quebec, Canada, and it endorses partnership and exchange programs in francophone Africa, Canada and Europe. More information on study abroad opportunities is available at https://silc.asu.edu/student-life/study-abroad/faculty-directed-summer-program-pages.
