German, BA

LAGERBA

Whether you want to learn about the long tradition of medieval courts, are intrigued by Germans' success in the business world or are imagining a career in the natural sciences, performing arts, sustainability or the humanities, a major in German helps you translate the world from a new perspective.

Program Description

Students in the BA program in German study the language, literature and culture of German-speaking people and gain a respectable measure of competence in reading, writing, oral and aural skills in the German language. Students broaden and deepen their studies with related courses on topics such as:

- art
- government
- history
- international business
- linguistics
- literature and culture
- religion

Students are encouraged to study abroad in Germany as participants in the School of International Letters and Cultures faculty-directed summer program in Regensburg or in one of the academic-year exchange programs available at several German universities. More information on study abroad opportunities is available at https://mystudyabroad.asu.edu.
