Medieval and Renaissance Studies, Certificate

LAMRSCERT

Medieval times and Renaissance ages were a time for both dark ages and cultural renewal. Explore the history, architecture, culture, art, military and technology of this time period through historic texts, classical languages and period arts.

Description

The Arizona Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies has established a certificate program for undergraduate students interested in medieval and Renaissance studies which reflects the transdisciplinary nature of the field.

The program provides students the opportunity to take classes from several disciplines and to receive training in Latin, the international language of the periods, and other early vernacular languages. Completion of the certificate program prepares undergraduate students for advanced study in their fields.

Thesis

The certificate requires a thesis of approximately 25 pages in length, written within the student's major discipline for an upper-division course on a topic concerning the Middle Ages or Renaissance. The thesis may be used to fulfill the thesis requirement for students enrolled in Barrett, the Honors College. Students may use no more than three credit hours of individualized instruction courses toward the certificate.

Depending on a student's undergraduate program of study, prerequisite courses may be needed in order to complete the requirements of this certificate.

Enrollment Requirements

GPA Requirement: None

Any student admitted to a degree program at ASU may complete a certificate program. Students should contact the Arizona Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies for more information and to complete the online application https://acmrs.org/academic-programs/certificate/undergrad. To schedule an advising appointment, students should visit https://acmrs.org/academic-programs/certificate/advising.

A student pursuing an undergraduate certificate must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student at ASU. Undergraduate certificates are not awarded prior to the award of an undergraduate degree. A student already holding an undergraduate degree may pursue an undergraduate certificate as a nondegree-seeking graduate student.
