English plays an important role in our everyday lives and provides a foundation for professional, academic and imaginative writing. Become an effective writer and gain essential critical-thinking skills while you study classical and modern works.

Program Description

The BA program in English focuses on effective writing, critical thinking and reading of sophisticated literary and nonliterary texts. The faculty teach courses in English, American and world literature, from the Classical period to the present; creative and academic writing; and American and international film. Internships in online publishing are also offered through ASU's acclaimed online literary journal, Superstition Review: https://superstitionreview.asu.edu/.

Students must complete a minimum of 12 upper-division credit hours of ENG courses offered by the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts.
