Legal Studies, MLS

If you want to understand legal principles and apply them to your field of interest without actually becoming a lawyer, this flexible 30-credit graduate program is for you.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: MLS Legal Studies

The MLS degree is offered for students who want to understand legal principles and apply them to their fields of interest without becoming a lawyer.

This degree program is for those interested in learning about the law or whose work intersects with the law. The program is flexible; it is offered in the fall, spring and summer, full-time and part-time, on-campus and online: https://law.asu.edu/degree-programs/mls.

Students may focus their program on popular areas of study (https://law.asu.edu/degree-programs) and can also pursue a concurrent program with the degrees listed below. The Master of Legal Studies program is also offered with concentrations in patent practice, and sports law and business.

To learn more, applicants should attend one of many offered information sessions: https://law.asu.edu/admissions/visit.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must fulfill the requirements of both the Graduate College and the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

Applicants are eligible to apply to the program if they have earned a bachelor's or master's degree from an accredited four-year college or university in the United States or attained a comparable degree from a foreign institution.

All applicants must submit:
1. completed MLS application form and application fee
2. official transcripts from all institutions attended
3. proof of English proficiency
4. resume that does not exceed three typed pages

Additional Application Information
Applicants who have received their bachelor’s or master’s degree in the U.S. can apply through the FastApp application process, which streamlines the application process and may allow for an offer of conditional admission to the MLS program while the applicant continues to submit any additional requested documentation.

If a decision cannot be made from the FastApp, the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law Admissions team may request additional information from the applicant, including any or all of the following:

- writing sample
- explanations to affirmative answers to any conduct questions
- two letters of recommendation

An applicant whose native language is not English must provide proof of English proficiency regardless of current residency. Applicants should see the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law website for acceptable TOEFL scores and additional information for foreign educated applicants.

MLS applicants with foreign education credentials must have all transcripts evaluated by the Academic Credentials Evaluation Institute, Inc. (ACEI). ACEI independently evaluates all academic documents issued in countries other than the United States. Students should contact ACEI through that organization's website to obtain an application for an evaluation. Applicants must request a course-by-course evaluation and order an official copy be sent directly to:

Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
Arizona State University
Beus Center for Law and Society
Office of Admissions and Financial Aid
Mail Code: 9520
111 E Taylor St.
