Leadership and Ethics, Certificate

PPLDECERT

Description

The certificate in leadership and ethics is designed for undergraduate students who are interested in developing leadership skills or wish to enhance their degree in an existing major at ASU or BA in interdisciplinary students who seek to combine certificates with their degree, and it is also for working adults who may wish to further their education yet may not be looking for a degree program.

The certificate program provides a catalyst for students to become ethical leaders of organizational and community change. This certificate is designed to explore the relationship between leadership and the capacity for individuals to assume responsibility for their actions and to act with a sense of ethics and integrity. It focuses on understanding the broad transdisciplinary field of leadership and its application to various elements of society and community, and it prepares individuals for positions of leadership and responsibility in the university, in student organizations, in their communities and throughout their careers in business, government and society.

Enrollment Requirements

Students are also encouraged to schedule an appointment with the undergraduate academic advisor in the School of Public Affairs.

Undergraduate Students Currently Enrolled at ASU

Current students interested in earning the certificate must complete a request to add an undergraduate certificate and return it to the undergraduate academic advisor in the School of Public Affairs at the University Center on the Downtown Phoenix campus. Students may begin taking courses before they formally register for the certificate; however, they are encouraged to complete the paperwork as soon as possible.

Download the request to add an undergraduate certificate at https://students.asu.edu/forms/undergraduate-certificate.

Individuals Not Currently Enrolled at ASU

Once students have been admitted, they are eligible to enroll in courses to complete the certificate program.

A student pursuing an undergraduate certificate must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student at ASU.
Undergraduate certificates are not awarded prior to the award of an undergraduate degree. A student already holding an undergraduate degree may pursue an undergraduate certificate as a nondegree-seeking graduate student.
