Public Service and Public Policy, BS

Are you passionate about exploring how government and policy affect your community and the lives of others? Our program is located in downtown Phoenix, the heart of Arizona's government. Here, you will gain an excellent foundation in public policy through our coursework while further gaining applied skills through internship. Both will build your expertise, applicable in high-demand careers in the public sector.

Program Description

The BS program in public service and public policy prepares students for work in government at all levels and in nonprofit organizations through comprehensive coverage of topics in public policy, public leadership and management, and urban studies.

Students discover the challenges of management and learn how to lead a public organization and understand the process of policy development. This program examines the public sector and addresses, in a practical way, the challenges facing the public. The program is unique because it enables students to study public service, policy and administration with a professional focus.

Students select one of the following concentrations areas to supplement their core courses, including; American Indian studies, business, criminology, emergency management, health policy, law and policy, nonprofit leadership and management, parks and recreation management, public leadership and management, science and technology, social services delivery, sustainability, or urban and metropolitan studies.

This major is eligible for the Western Undergraduate Exchange program at the following location: Downtown Phoenix campus. Students from Western states who select this major and campus may be eligible for reduced nonresident tuition at a rate of 150% of Arizona resident tuition plus all applicable fees. Students should click the link for more information and eligibility requirements of the WUE program.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience
Students in the public service and public policy program work to create policies that advance the public interest. Studying abroad allows students to gain a better understanding of how government functions at various levels around the world, which public policies used are beneficial to society and which policies need to be improved upon. Students increase their knowledge and experiential base through study abroad to bring about positive change in their own communities. https://goglobal.asu.edu/

Career Opportunities

This degree program provides students with the knowledge and skills to transform government and policy at all levels.

The public service sector offers sustainable, exciting and fulfilling career options. Upon graduation, students are empowered to use knowledge of the public sector as a catalyst to change the world. By understanding the challenges facing government and being well-versed in the development of multiple, useful and realistic solutions, graduates contribute to the development of local, national and global communities.

The bachelor’s degree program in public service and public policy prepares students for entry- and mid-level supervisory and managerial positions in city, county, state and federal agencies. For those who already have work experience, the degree provides further opportunity for promotion.

Career examples include but are not limited to those shown in the following list. Advanced degrees or certifications may be required for academic or clinical positions.
