Latino Cultural Competency in Social Work (Graduate Certificate)

PPSWGGRCL

As a social worker, do you aspire to have the knowledge to engage in culturally rounded and effective practice with Latino individuals and families? In this program, you develop the skills desired to meet a growing Latino population and best serve the Latino community.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: Certificate Latino Cultural Competency in Social Work (certificate)

In response to need, ASU offers a graduate certificate in Latino cultural competency through the Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions School of Social Work. The School of Social Work offers Latino-oriented courses with an emphasis on Spanish language development for professional social workers.

The goal of the program is to enhance a social work professional's capacity for engaging in culturally grounded practice with Latino clients and their families.

The program is intended for professionals who want to expand their employment potential by adding an expertise in professional services with Latinos; learn the critical, cross-cultural factors that influence a worker's competency in forming professional helping relationships with Latinos; understand the social and cultural context and theoretical principles of social work practice with Latinos; and learn the social service delivery issues involved in providing services for bilingual and limited- or non-English-speaking Latino populations.
