Tourism Development and Management (Resort and Hotel Leadership), BS

Program Description

The concentration in resort and hotel leadership will attract students and professionals who have interests in the diverse areas of knowledge needed within the accommodations sector, knowledge such as:

- ecological, social and economic sustainability practices in the industry
- hospitality management and leadership
- meeting the expectations of hotel and resort guests
- the interrelated functions within departments of the lodging, food and beverage industries

A concentration in resort and accommodations leadership provides students an academic option to study in-depth the resort and accommodations system and gain knowledge of the importance of the business relationships between suppliers, intermediaries and vendors, guests, and the public and private sectors. The concentration program prepares students to serve our community by developing the skills, knowledge, techniques and capabilities needed for addressing major issues related to resorts and other tourism accommodations.
