Tourism Development and Management (Resort and Hotel Leadership), BS

Prepare for a profession in the lodging sector of the hospitality and tourism industry. Through the comprehensive coursework, integrating sustainable practices, career exposure opportunities, study abroad options and culminating internship experiences of this program, you will be positioned for a management and leadership position in the world's largest service industry.

Program Description

The BS in tourism development and management with a concentration in resort and hotel leadership attracts students and professionals who have interests in the diverse areas of knowledge needed within the accommodations sector, knowledge such as:

- ecological, social and economic sustainability practices in the industry
- hospitality management and leadership
- meeting the expectations of hotel and resort guests
- the interrelated functions within departments of the lodging, food and beverage industries

The concentration program in resort and accommodations leadership provides students an academic option to study in-depth the resort and accommodations system and gain knowledge of the importance of the business relationships between suppliers, intermediaries and vendors, guests, and the public and private sectors. It also prepares students to serve their communities by developing the skills, knowledge, techniques and capabilities needed for addressing major issues related to resorts and other tourism accommodations.

This major is eligible for the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program at the following location: Downtown Phoenix campus.
