Program Description

Degree Awarded: MGLS Global Leadership and Strategy

Thunderbird's MGLS with an executive focus delivers a program experience for executives that takes the student inside the boardrooms of businesses and governments around the world - providing exclusive insight into the strategy and leadership nuances at play in today's complex and dynamic global environment.

The Master of Global Leadership and Strategy program for executives breaks free of the traditional, lock-step curriculum of other graduate programs to immerse the student in hands-on, culturally complex leadership situations that will broaden their global mindset, enhance their executive presence and accelerate their career advancement.
