Global Management, MGM

With your global mindset, your passion for travel and language, and your aspirations for an international career, you deserve a master's degree that will open up a world of possibilities. Focused 100 percent on global management, the MGM prepares you to do business across borders and cultures with the dexterity you can't learn in a traditional business program.

Program Description

Degree Awarded: MGM Global Management

The MGM is an in-depth, global business education professional degree program that combines general management coursework, cross-cultural insight, regional studies and foreign language components to educate global business leaders. With its innovative program philosophy, the master's degree program provides a strategically choreographed progression through every facet of international management, with hands-on, experiential learning opportunities and practical, applicable nuances of global business.

The master's degree offered at the Thunderbird campus is designed for individuals who want to immerse themselves in full-time graduate studies and take classes in person.

The online option is designed for professionals seeking to continue working while attending school. Courses are delivered primarily online with three separate one-week, in-person seminars: one hosted at the Thunderbird campus and two hosted abroad.

Global Opportunities

Global Experience

Study abroad is possible for graduate students with more than 50 program opportunities spanning six continents. Faculty-directed programs tend to be the best fit for graduate students; taking courses over the summer or during academic breaks with ASU professors offers close mentorship and professional network growth in many fields of study while earning ASU credit. Exchange program participation is also possible with careful planning. https://mystudyabroad.asu.edu/students/graduate-students
