Moment by moment, day by day and person by person, educators improve lives and strengthen communities. Wherever life takes you, an education degree prepares you to master new knowledge, communicate effectively and thrive in a world --- and an economy --- in which lifelong learning is key to success and happiness.

Program Description

Students in the education exploratory track have the unique opportunity to explore different certification areas prior to selecting one of many majors within the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College. During the program's course, TEL 101 The Teachers College Experience, and through specific events scheduled throughout freshman year, students on this track are exposed to all programs and certification areas. Students make a more informed decision about the grade level or subject they want to teach while the exploratory track keeps them on track to graduate from any of the BAE programs. This track does not lead to a degree, and students need to declare a major after completion of 30 credit hours.
